

Article 62 [Representation in the Institutions of Local Government]

1. In municipalities where at least ten per cent (10%) of the residents belong to Communities not in the majority in those municipalities, a post of Vice President of the Municipal Assembly for Communities shall be reserved for a representative of these communities.
2. The position of Vice President shall be held by the non-majority candidate who received the most votes on the open list of candidates for election to the Municipal Assembly.
3. The Vice President for Communities shall promote inter-Community dialogue and serve as formal focal point for addressing non-majority Communities' concerns and interests in meetings of the Assembly and its work. The Vice President shall also be responsible for reviewing claims by Communities or their members that the acts or decisions of the Municipal Assembly violate their constitutionally guaranteed rights. The Vice President shall refer such matters to the Municipal Assembly for its reconsideration of the act or decision.
4. In the event the Municipal Assembly chooses not to reconsider its act or decision, or the Vice President deems the result, upon reconsideration, to still present a violation of a constitutionally guaranteed right, the Vice President may submit the matter directly to the Constitutional Court, which may decide whether or not to accept the matter for review.
5. In these municipalities, representation for non-majority Communities in the Republic of Kosovo in the municipal executive body is guaranteed.

Chapter IV Assembly of the Republic of Kosovo

Article 63 [General Principles]

The Assembly is the legislative institution of the Republic of Kosovo directly elected by the people.

Article 64 [Structure of Assembly]

1. The Assembly has one hundred twenty (120) deputies elected by secret ballot on the basis of open lists. The seats in the Assembly are distributed amongst all parties, coalitions, citizens' initiatives and independent candidates in proportion to the number of valid votes received by them in the election to the Assembly.
2. In the framework of this distribution, twenty (20) of the one hundred twenty (120) seats are guaranteed for representation of communities that are not in the majority in Kosovo as follows:
 - (1) Parties, coalitions, citizens' initiatives and independent candidates having declared themselves representing the Kosovo Serb Community shall have the total number of seats won through the open election, with a minimum ten (10) seats guaranteed if the number of seats won is less than ten (10);
 - (2) Parties, coalitions, citizens' initiatives and independent candidates having declared themselves representing the other Communities shall have the total number of seats won through the open election, with a minimum number of seats in the Assembly guaranteed as follows: the Roma community, one (1) seat; the Ashkali community, one (1) seat; the Egyptian community, one (1) seat; and one (1) additional seat will be awarded to either the Roma, the Ashkali or the Egyptian community with the highest overall votes; the Bosnian community, three (3) seats; the Turkish community, two (2) seats; and the Gorani community, one (1) seat if the number of seats won by each community is less than the number guaranteed.

3. The motion of no confidence shall be placed on the Assembly agenda no later than five (5) days nor earlier than two (2) days from the date it was presented.
4. The motion of no confidence is considered accepted when adopted by a majority vote of all deputies of the Assembly of Kosovo.
5. If a motion of no confidence fails, a subsequent motion for no confidence may not be raised during the next ninety (90) days.
6. If a motion of no confidence against the Government prevails, the Government is considered dismissed.

Article 101 [Civil Service]

1. The composition of the civil service shall reflect the diversity of the people of Kosovo and take into account internationally recognized principles of gender equality.
2. An independent oversight board for civil service shall ensure the respect of the rules and principles governing the civil service, and shall itself reflect the diversity of the people of the Republic of Kosovo.

Chapter VII Justice System

Article 102 [General Principles of the Judicial System]

1. Judicial power in the Republic of Kosovo is exercised by the courts.
2. The judicial power is unique, independent, fair, apolitical and impartial and ensures equal access to the courts.
3. Courts shall adjudicate based on the Constitution and the law.
4. Judges shall be independent and impartial in exercising their functions.
5. The right to appeal a judicial decision is guaranteed unless otherwise provided by law. The right to extraordinary legal remedies is regulated by law. The law may allow the right to refer a case directly to the Supreme Court, in which case there would be no right of appeal.

Article 103 [Organization and Jurisdiction of Courts]

1. Organization, functioning and jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and other courts shall be regulated by law.
2. The Supreme Court of Kosovo is the highest judicial authority.
3. At least fifteen percent (15%) of the judges of the Supreme Court, but not fewer than three (3) judges, shall be from Communities that are not in the majority in Kosovo.
4. The President of the Supreme Court of Kosovo shall be appointed and dismissed by the President of the Republic of Kosovo from among the judges of the Supreme Court for a non-renewable term of seven (7) years upon proposal by the Kosovo Judicial Council for the appointment or dismissal.
5. Presidents of all other courts shall be appointed in the manner provided by law.
6. At least fifteen percent (15%) of the judges from any other court established with appeal jurisdiction, but not fewer than two (2) judges, shall be from Communities that are not in the majority in Kosovo.
7. Specialized courts may be established by law when necessary, but no extraordinary court may ever be created.

Article 104 [Appointment and Removal of Judges]

1. The President of the Republic of Kosovo shall appoint, reappoint and dismiss judges upon the proposal of the Kosovo Judicial Council.

2. The composition of the judiciary shall reflect the ethnic diversity of Kosovo and internationally recognized principles of gender equality.
3. The composition of the courts shall reflect the ethnic composition of the territorial jurisdiction of the respective court. Before making a proposal for appointment or reappointment, the Kosovo Judicial Council consults with the respective court.
4. Judges may be removed from office upon conviction of a serious criminal offense or for serious neglect of duties.
5. A judge has the right to directly appeal a decision of dismissal to the Kosovo Supreme Court.
6. Judges may not be transferred against their will unless otherwise provided by law for the efficient operation of the judiciary or disciplinary measures.

Article 105 [Mandate and Reappointment]

1. The initial mandate for judges shall be three years. The reappointment mandate is permanent until the retirement age as determined by law or unless removed in accordance with law.
2. The criteria and procedures to reappoint a judge shall be determined by the Kosovo Judicial Council and they may be different in degree from the criteria used for the removal of judges.

Article 106 [Incompatibility]

1. A judge may not perform any function in any state institution outside of the judiciary, become involved in any political activity, or be involved in any other activity prohibited by law.
2. Judges are not permitted to assume any responsibilities or take on any functions that would in any way be inconsistent with the principles of independence and impartiality of the role of a judge.

Article 107 [Immunity]

1. Judges, including lay-judges, shall be immune from prosecution, civil lawsuit and dismissal for actions taken, decisions made or opinions expressed that are within the scope of their responsibilities as judges.
2. Judges, including lay-judges, shall not enjoy immunity and may be removed from office if they have committed an intentional violation of the law.
3. When a judge is indicted or arrested, notice must be given to the Kosovo Judicial Council without delay.

Article 108 [Kosovo Judicial Council]

1. The Kosovo Judicial Council shall ensure the independence and impartiality of the judicial system.
2. The Kosovo Judicial Council is a fully independent institution in the performance of its functions. The Kosovo Judicial Council shall ensure that the Kosovo courts are independent, professional and impartial and fully reflect the multi-ethnic nature of Kosovo and follow the principles of gender equality. The Kosovo Judicial Council shall give preference in the appointment of judges to members of Communities that are underrepresented in the judiciary as provided by law.
3. The Kosovo Judicial Council is responsible for recruiting and proposing candidates for appointment and reappointment to judicial office. The Kosovo Judicial Council is also responsible for transfer and disciplinary proceedings of judges.
4. Proposals for appointments of judges must be made on the basis of an open appointment process, on the basis of the merit of the candidates, and the proposals shall reflect principles of gender equality and the ethnic composition of the territorial jurisdiction of the respective court. All candidates must fulfill the selection criteria provided by law.
5. The Kosovo Judicial Council is responsible for conducting judicial inspections, judicial administration, developing court rules in accordance with the law, hiring and supervising court administrators, developing and overseeing the budget of the judiciary, determining the number of judges in each jurisdiction and making recommendations for the establishment of new courts. New courts shall be established according to law.
6. The Kosovo Judicial Council shall be composed of thirteen (13) members, all of whom shall possess relevant professional qualifications and expertise. Members shall be elected for a term of five (5) years and shall be chosen in the following manner:
 - (1) five (5) members shall be judges elected by the members of the judiciary;
 - (2) four (4) members shall be elected by deputies of the Assembly holding seats attributed during the general distribution of seats; at least two (2) of the four (4) must be judges and one (1) must be a member of the Kosovo Chamber of Advocates;
 - (3) two (2) members shall be elected by the deputies of the Assembly holding reserved or guaranteed seats for the Kosovo Serb community and at least one of the two must be a judge;
 - (4) two (2) members shall be elected by the deputies of the Assembly holding reserved or guaranteed seats for other Communities and at least one of the two must be a judge.
 - (5) Incompatibilities with membership on the Kosovo Judicial Council shall be regulated by law.
7. The Kosovo Judicial Council elects from its members a Chair and Vice Chair each for a term of three (3) years. Election to these offices does not extend the mandate of the members of the Kosovo Judicial Council.

8. The Chair of the Kosovo Judicial Council addresses the Assembly of the Republic of Kosovo at least once a year regarding the Judicial System.
9. Candidates for judicial positions that are reserved for members of Communities that are not in the majority in Kosovo may only be recommended for appointment by the majority of members of the Council elected by Assembly deputies holding seats reserved or guaranteed for members of communities that are not in the majority in Kosovo. If this group of Council members fails to recommend a candidate for a judicial position in two consecutive sessions of the Council, any Council member may recommend a candidate for that position.
10. Candidates for judicial positions within basic courts, the jurisdiction of which exclusively includes the territory of one or more municipalities in which the majority of the population belongs to the Kosovo Serb community, may only be recommended for appointment by the two members of the Council elected by Assembly deputies holding seats reserved or guaranteed for the Serb Community in the Republic of Kosovo acting jointly and unanimously. If these two (2) members fail to recommend a judicial candidate for two consecutive sessions of the Kosovo Judicial Council, any Kosovo Judicial Council member may recommend a candidate for that position.

Article 109 [State Prosecutor]

Article 162

[The Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office]

Notwithstanding any provision in this Constitution:

1. To comply with its international obligations in relation to the Council of Europe Parliamentary Assembly Report Doc 12462 of 7 January 2011, the Republic of Kosovo may establish Specialist Chambers and a Specialist Prosecutor's Office within the justice system of Kosovo. The organisation, functioning and jurisdiction of the Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall be regulated by this Article and by a specific law.
2. The Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall uphold the protections enshrined within Chapter II of the Constitution, and in particular shall act in compliance with the international human rights standards guaranteed by Article 22 and subject to Article 55.
3. A Specialist Chamber of the Constitutional Court, composed of three (3) international judges appointed in addition to the judges referred to in Article 114 (1), shall exclusively decide any constitutional referrals under Article 113 of the Constitution relating to the Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office in accordance with a specific law.
4. The Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall have full legal and juridical personality and shall have all the necessary powers and mandate for their operation, judicial co-operation, assistance, witness protection, security, detention and the service of sentence outside the territory of Kosovo for anyone convicted, as well as in relation to the management of any residual matters after finalization of the mandate. Arrangements arising from the exercise of these powers are not subject to Article 18.

5. Before entering into any international treaty with a third state relating to judicial cooperation, which would otherwise require ratification under Article 18, the Specialist Chambers shall seek the agreement of the Government.

6. The Specialist Chambers may determine its own Rules of Procedure and Evidence, in accordance with international human rights standards as enshrined in Article 22 and be guided by the Kosovo Code of Criminal Procedure. The Specialist Chamber of the Constitutional Court shall review the Rules to ensure compliance with Chapter II of the Constitution.

7. The Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office may have a seat in Kosovo and a seat outside Kosovo. The Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office may perform their functions at either seat or elsewhere, as required.

8. Consistent with international law and pursuant to international agreements, any persons accused of crimes before the Specialist Chambers may be detained on remand and transferred to the Specialist Chambers sitting outside the territory of Kosovo. If found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment, any such persons may be transferred to serve their sentence in a third country, outside the territory of Kosovo, pursuant to arrangements concluded under paragraph 4.

9. The official languages of the Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall be Albanian, Serbian and English. The Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor may decide on the official use of language(s) for the exercise of their mandate.

10. Appointment and oversight of judges and prosecutors and the oversight and administration of the Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall be in accordance with a specific law.

11. A separate Ombudsperson of the Specialist Chambers with exclusive responsibility for the Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall be appointed and his/her function and reporting obligations determined by [a specific law]. Articles 133(2), 134, 135(1) and (2) shall not apply to the Ombudsperson for the Specialist Chambers. The Ombudsperson of Kosovo may also refer matters as provided by Article 135 (4).

12. Specific administrative procedures, modalities, the organisation and functioning of the Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor's Office, the oversight, budgeting, auditing and other functions will be regulated by international agreement, by a specific law and through arrangements made under paragraph 4.

13. The mandate of the Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall be for a period of five (5) years, unless notification of completion of the mandate in accordance with Law No. 04/L-274 occurs earlier.

14. In the absence of notification of completion of the mandate under paragraph 13, the mandate of the Specialist Chambers and the Specialist Prosecutor's Office shall continue until notification of completion is made in accordance with Law No. 04/L-274 and in consultation with the Government.

II.

Constitutional amendments shall enter into force immediately upon their adoption by the Assembly of the Republic of Kosovo.
